

Colorado PGA Golf Professional of the Year

The Colorado PGA Golf Professional of the Year Award is determined annually by The Colorado PGA to honor the working PGA Professional whose total contributions to the game best exemplify the complete PGA Professional.

Originally suggested by Richard S. Tufts, of Pinehurst, N.C., former president of the United States Golf Association, the award embraces a wide range of services executed by the PGA Professional.

The highest annual honor bestowed upon a PGA Professional, the award is based on the candidate's entire record, with special emphasis placed on performance and achievement over the past five years in the following criteria: overall performance as a PGA Professional at his/her facility; service to the Colorado PGA Section; leadership ability; image and ability to inspire fellow PGA Professionals; and promotion of golf.
